Division and Distribution of Trust Property

Section 1. Division of Trust Property Into Shares

My Trustee will divide my Trust Estate not previously distributed into separate shares of equal value (and for purposes of determining such division and subsequent distribution will take into account the exclusion of any descendant as may be directed in Article One) as follows:

a. One Share for Each Living Child

My Trustee will create one share for each of my then living children.

b. One Share for Each Deceased Child

My Trustee will create one share for each of my deceased children who has then living descendants.

Section 2. Distribution of Trust Shares for My Living Children

Unless distributions from a trust share are withheld pursuant to Section 1 of Article Fifteen or as otherwise provided in Section 4 of this Article, my Trustee will promptly distribute the trust share set aside for each of my living children to such children free of trust.

Section 3. Distribution of Trust Share for Descendant of Deceased Child

Unless distributions from a trust share are withheld pursuant to Section 1 of Article Fifteen or as otherwise provided in Section 4 of this Article, my Trustee will promptly distribute, free of trust, the trust share set aside for my deceased children to their descendants, per stirpes.
